

What Is Plaintiff Cost Insurance?

DAS Plaintiff Cost Insurance protects your clients against potential costs associated with an unsuccessful outcome of their legal action, giving you and your client access to justice and confidence.

Why choose DAS?

DAS was the first insurer to enter the Canadian personal injury adverse cost insurance market. This means we have more data and more experience underwriting this class of insurance than any other legal expense insurance company in the country.

We are your peers. As experienced litigators, we speak the same language and can relate to your day-to-day experience. As a result, our products are crafted with your firm's and client's long-term future in mind.

Your client attains personal protection and financial security, as DAS policies are backed by an A+ financial security rating.

Your firm can recover disbursements incurred on files that must be abandoned or withdrawn prior to trial, which may not otherwise be recovered.

Plaintiff Cost Insurance: Key Features

Premium is not paid on unsuccessful actions – it is only paid if you win.

It is not only for cases that will go to trial - we insure a number of possible outcomes, including: abandonment, dismissal, withdrawal, failure to beat defendant's last offer, etc.

What types of cases does DAS insure?

We insure legal disputes claiming compensation for personal injury arising from:

- ♥ Occupier's Liability
- ♥ Municipal Liability
- ♥ Motor Vehicle Accidents
- ♥ Assault and Battery
- ♥ Product Liability

When does coverage commence?

Coverage commences from the date of your firm's contingency fee agreement with your client, and it is activated once an insurance certificate is issued by DAS.

How do I sign up?

Contact us or your insurance broker to start the process of insuring your portfolio of cases.

Once a contract is signed between you/your firm and DAS, you will be authorized to offer our Plaintiff Cost Insurance to your eligible clients.
